

GREEN CITY GROWERS

Your Farm. Anywhere.

BUILD

INSTALL

MAINTAIN

PRODUCE

EDUCATE

To date, Green City Growers has grown over 110,000 pounds of organic produce valued at more than 1/2 a million dollars, and worked hands-on with more than 6,000 individuals, all in under 2 acres of growing space.

Employ: 7 full time staff, and up to 15 seasonal staff, at competitive wages

Partner: with local for profit and non-profit organizations

Serve: area residents, communities and businesses

Profitable: achieved profitability in year six

Somerville Urban Agriculture Ambassadors

GCG's Replicable Models

Beverly School System

5 elementary schools w/garden installations and weekly programs where every 3rd grader in Beverly learns how to grow food.

Whole Foods Market, Lynnfield, MA
17,000 square foot rooftop farm, yields up to 8,000 pounds of organically grown produce per year.

Arugula

Basil

Beans

Carrots (orange, purple)

Chives

Cilantro

Cucumbers

Garlic

Garlic scapes

Head lettuce

Kale

Mint

Nasturtiums

Hot peppers

Sweet peppers

Radishes

Sage

Scallions

Thyme

3 varieties tomatoes

Turnips

Zinnias

Corporate employee wellness programs

HPHC

MassMed

Mapfre

Abt

Verizon

National Grid

athenahealth

Akamai

Google

Assisted living adaptive beds

Milk crates can be used for rooftop and temporary installations, as they are easy to move. They look clean and organized bordering a roof or ground-level space.

Network of half-to-one-acre Urban Farms
Vacant lots reclaimed to creating space for local food production and education.

